Official Journal of the U.S. Public Health Service

Editorial. Necessary steps □ Edward N. Brandt, Jr. (cover 2)

295 Physician manpower: GMENAC and afterwards □ Itzhak Jacoby

304 The demographic dimensions of health manpower policy □ Miriam Ostow and Michael L. Millman

310 A geographic framework for coordination of needs assessment for primary medical care in California □ Edward A. Smeloff, William H. Burnett, and Pauline J. Kelzer

315 A decentralized rehabilitation program for chronic airway obstruction disease patients in small urban and rural areas of Wisconsin: a preliminary report □ Sheldon R. Braun, Sue Driscoll, Angelika Anderegg, James Barb, F. Roger Smith, and William G. Reddan

319 The epidemiologic catchment area program of the National Institute of Mental Health □ William W. Eaton, Darrel A. Regier, Ben Z. Locke, and Carl A. Taube

326 Factors that differentiate smokers from exsmokers in a Florida metropolitan area □ Sylvi A. Dzegede, John R. Hackworth, and Steven W. Pike

335 The use of socioeconomic data to predict teenage birth rates. An exploratory study in Massachusetts □ Sylvia B. Perlman, Lorraine V. Klerman, and E. Milling Kinard

342 Observations on the relation of environmental and behavioral factors to the occurrence of otitis media among Indian children □ James R. Shaw, N. Wendell Todd, Melvin H. Goodwin, Jr., and Clyde M. Feldman

350 Increased leukemia, lymphoma, and spontaneous abortion in Western New York following a flood disaster □ Dwight T. Janerich, Alice D. Stark, Peter Greenwald, William S. Burnett, Herbert I. Jacobson, and Jane McCusker

357 CDC's surveillance of surgical sterilization: objectives and methods of data collection □ Jack C. Smith

363 Predicting school nurse involvement in meeting sexuality related needs of youth in New Jersey □ Virginia A. Gorosh

369 Issues encountered in an attempt to implement a second-generation management information system □ David A. Adler and Carl N. Edwards

Contents continued
Programs, Practices, People

376 $300,000 in new Atlanta aid awarded by HHS to help deliver mental health services □ Paul Sirovatka

376 Hispanic mothers are younger, less educated, and less likely to receive early prenatal care

377 New policy for approving generic drug applications

377 NIDA-Blue Cross demonstration for alcoholism treatment is enlarged □ Jim Doherty

378 Visits to physicians—costs, how paid, and waiting times for appointment and at visit

378 BRH-directed efforts eliminate unnecessary chest X-rays

379 Can violence be predicted? NIMH monograph discusses issue □ Marilyn Sargent

379 Two additional centers funded to study rehabilitation of the mentally handicapped □ Marilyn Sargent

380 U.S. cesarean section rate rises higher in 1979 □ Paul J. Placek and Selma M. Taffel

380 APHA seeks abstracts of papers on late-breaking investigations for epidemiologic exchange

381 Controversial eye operation to be evaluated by NEI

381 Proceedings of a conference to stimulate health services research among Hispanics

382 40 free NCI publications for cancer patients, families, and professionals are listed

382 Costs associated with rare adverse outcomes for six commonly used vaccines

382 HCFA grant to enable analysis of hospital ambulatory care

383 Legal note. Revoking Federal qualification of an HMO: what process is due? □ Peter A. Pavarini

385 Education notes

386 Publications

PHR bookshelf (cover 3)